2. Course Description

- The course has two parts. Part I is on cyber forensic techniques and e-mail forensics. Part II is on industrial espionage in cyberspace, security governance, vulnerability analysis, systems evaluation, cyber situational awareness, systems security evaluation, and security policies.
- Prerequisites: None

3. Tentative Schedule

- See course website.

4. Course Materials

- Textbook: None
- Lecture notes: Powerpoint slides provided by the instructor.

5. Assignments and Grading

- Assignments:
 1. Midterm Exam: 20% (count the higher mark of midterm and final exam)
 2. Final Exam: 45%
 3. Team Project: 25%
 4. Assignment: 5%
 5. Participation: 5%

- Details:

1. Midterm Exam will focus on cyber forensics.
2. Final Exam will take place during the examination period at the end of the semester. Students should not make any specific arrangements to leave the city until the final exam date is posted.
3. Team Project: must be done in a team of at most n members, where n will be defined in class. Every member should sign the Expectations of Originality form with the submitted report.
4. Participation: attend all lectures and lab sessions.

- Final Grade:

Important: There is no substitution to a missing midterm, so make sure that you write the midterm at the scheduled time. There are no pre-set cut-off points for the final grades; the cut-off points will be decided based on an assessment of difficulty level, class performance, and fairness. That is, there is no definite rule for translation of number grades to letter grades.

Plagiarism, absenteeism, lack of preparation, and lack of effort will result in a failing grade.

In the event of extraordinary circumstances beyond the University's control, the content and/or evaluation scheme in this course is subject to change.

6. Academic Code of Conduct

Academic Integrity

Any form of cheating, plagiarism, personation, falsification of a document as well as any other form of dishonest behaviour related to the obtention of academic gain or the avoidance of evaluative exercises committed by a student is an academic offence under the Academic Code of Conduct and may lead to severe penalties up to and including suspension and expulsion.

As examples only, you are not permitted to:

- Copy from anywhere without indicating where it came from
- Let another student copy your work and then submit it as his/her own
- Hand in the same assignment/project in more than one class
- Have unauthorized material or devices in an exam. Note that you do not have to be caught using them – just having them is an offence
- Copy from someone's else exam
- Communicate with another student during an exam
- Add or remove pages from an examination booklet or take the booklet out of an exam room
- Acquire exam or assignment answers or questions
- Write an exam for someone else or have someone write an exam for you
- Submit false documents such as medical notes or student records
- Falsify data or research results

You are subject to the Academic Code of Conduct. Take the time to learn more at <http://www.concordia.ca/programs-and-courses/academic-integrity/>

7. Student's Responsibilities
